

Player Roles and Responsibilities:

As a player, the responsibility rests with you to be willing to learn, play hard and be committed to your team for the entire season. You should attend practices regularly and be present at all games. It should be understood that any player that misses a game without notifying his/her coach could be asked to sit out part of the next game. Baseball is a team sport and each player is an important part in the success of the team. Player's adherence to this code will promote fair play, discipline and good sportsmanship for the good of RLL baseball.

As a RLL player, I agree to the following Code of Conduct:

1. I will always display a respectful, positive attitude toward teammates, opponents, coaches, umpires and spectators.
2. I will always wear the proper uniform, in the proper manner.
3. I understand that if I intentionally throw my bat, helmet, glove or other piece of equipment, I will be subject to ejection from the game at the discretion of the umpire.
4. I will play hard, but in a safe and responsible manner. I will not intentionally endanger another player in any way.
5. I will not use abusive or profane language or gestures, or participate in any form of trash talk or negative cheering.
6. I will never use vulgar language or vulgar gestures.
7. I will exhibit and promote good sportsmanlike conduct, and shake hands with the opposing players after each game.
